

A close-up photograph of a person's hand using a blue pen to draw architectural plans on a large sheet of paper. A wooden ruler is placed horizontally across the drawing. The background is a dark wooden table. A large, semi-transparent orange circle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing the text.

KEEP UP TO DATE WITH SWEET & MAXWELL'S

PLANNING LAW TITLES

SWEET & MAXWELL

THOMSON REUTERS®

Encyclopedia of Planning Law and Practice

10 Volume Looseleaf, 4 releases a year, 12 monthly bulletins a year

Editors: David Elvin QC and Landmark Chambers team

This leading reference work provides exhaustive coverage of all the relevant legislation, statutory instruments and policy, with expert annotations and commentary.

Coverage in forthcoming releases and monthly bulletins will include:

- Tracking the progress of the Government's Levelling-up and Regeneration Bill as it goes through Parliament, and the associated changes in national policy and regulations, such as to the community infrastructure levy, environmental assessment and local plans
- Monitoring developments in the reform of Welsh planning legislation
- Commentary on the Environment Act 2021 and regulations and guidance made under it as they relate to planning
- Following developments in climate change matters which affect planning
- Continuing updates to the legislation, case law, policy and procedural guides

.....
9780421007406 | £2,496

This title is also available on Westlaw UK and as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

SWEET & MAXWELL SUMMER SALE

Save 30% on a new subscription – offer available on print and ProView formats until 23 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting PLAN30PC

Planning Law: Practice and Precedents

1 Volume Looseleaf, 3 releases a year

Editors: Stephen Tromans QC, Daniel Stedman Jones, Jonathan Darby, Holmes & Hills LLP

A narrative, transaction-based work which deals with all aspects of planning law and practice.

Features:

- Provides an explanation of the law and procedure relating to each topic, with references to the relevant legislation, policy and guidance, cases and published planning appeal decisions
- Approaches each topic with both the applicant and the local planning authority in mind
- Deals with the practical issues that practitioners encounter in their daily work
- Includes an annual supplement containing a range of precedents and practical guidance on the use of official forms

.....
9780421388505 | £1,200

This title is also available on Westlaw UK and as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

SWEET & MAXWELL SUMMER SALE

Save 30% on a new subscription – offer available on print and ProView formats until 23 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting PLAN30PC

Encyclopedia of Compulsory Purchase and Compensation

3 Volume Looseleaf, 3 releases a year

Editors: Richard Glover QC, Saira Kabir Sheikh QC, Meyric Lewis, Mark Westmoreland Smith, Hugh Flanagan

This work provides a complete guide to this complex area of law, including the full text of the relevant legislation and policy with annotations.

Features:

- Provides detailed coverage of the powers of relevant authorities to acquire land compulsorily
- Examines the authorisation procedure for compulsory purchase orders, procedure after the order, and exercise of the powers
- Explains the rules which regulate entitlement to compensation
- Identifies the methods and procedures for challenging compulsory purchase orders
- Discusses purchase notice and blight notice procedures

9780421007505 | £1,644

This title is also available on Westlaw UK and as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

SWEET & MAXWELL SUMMER SALE

Save 30% on a new subscription – offer available on print and ProView formats until 23 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting PLAN30PC

Journal of Planning and Environment Law

12 issues a year

Editors: Dr Ashley Bowes and team

The Journal provides a guide to developments in planning and environmental law and a forum for debate. It includes current topics, articles, correspondence, Parliamentary and Departmental news, case law reports, summaries of cases, Upper Tribunal decisions, and ministerial planning decisions.

Forthcoming issues will provide expert discussion of matters such as:

- The reforms proposed in the Levelling-up and Regeneration Bill
- New policy proposals (including a new NPPF) heralded in the DLUHC Levelling-up and Regeneration: Further Information paper
- The changes introduced by the Environment Act 2021
- The reforms proposed in the Bill of Rights Bill
- Plus a special 13th issue containing the papers from the 50th annual Joint Planning Law Conference, 50 not out

ISSN 0307-4870 | £1,224

This title is also available as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

SWEET & MAXWELL SUMMER SALE

Save 30% on a new subscription – offer available on print and ProView formats until 23 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting PLAN30PC

Property, Planning and Compensation Reports

10 issues a year

Editors: Lord Justice Lewison, John Pugh-Smith, Professor Michael Haley

The Reports, first published in 1949, cover all the significant property, planning, compulsory purchase and compensation cases which come before the judiciary and the Upper Tribunal (Lands Chamber). Many of the cases they report have not been reported elsewhere.

Features:

- With their clear and concise format, the Reports are the most authoritative general property law reports available
- Unrivalled coverage of a wide range of subjects, from agricultural holdings, commons and easements, to highway maintenance, footpaths and land charges; land law, conveyancing and land registration, to landlord and tenant and mortgages; as well as town and country planning and compulsory purchase
- Indispensable to solicitors, barristers, planners, surveyors and other practitioners needing to keep abreast of the latest case law developments in these areas

ISSN 2754-138X | £1,968

This title is also available as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

SWEET & MAXWELL SUMMER SALE

Save 30% on a new subscription – offer available on print and ProView formats until 23 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting PLAN30PC

Listed Buildings and other Heritage Assets

5th Edition

Authors: Dr Charles Mynors, Nigel Hewitson

The standard reference work on the law and practice relating to the protection of historic buildings and other heritage assets throughout the United Kingdom.

Features:

- Explains how the key features of the built heritage are protected, which planning and other controls apply, the processes for applying for planning permission and appealing against a decision, and the consequences of carrying out works without consent
- Discusses the powers that exist to bring about repairs and for the acquisition of heritage assets by public authorities
- Includes a selection of forms and precedents and sample conditions on listed building consents

9780414038158 | £222

This title is also available on Westlaw UK and as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

Publication date: September 2017

SPECIAL OFFER

15% discount on print and ProView formats – offer available from 1 August to 30 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting LISTBD22

The Law of Trees, Forests and Hedges

3rd Edition

Authors: Dr Charles Mynors, Stephanie Hall, Elizabeth Nicholls

The only comprehensive work on this complex area of law as it applies throughout the United Kingdom.

Features:

- Explains the general law on trees, dealing with issues such as ownership, boundaries, subsidence claims, hazardous trees, trees on highways, and habitat protection
- Outlines the law relating to commercial forestry, looking at financial considerations, felling licences, the assessment of environmental impact, and health and safety issues
- Highlights various mechanisms for protecting important trees and hedgerows, ancient woodlands and historic landscapes
- Fully updated to deal with all new legislation and policy and over 75 new judicial decisions

9780414103009 | £195

This title is also available on Westlaw UK and as an eBook on Thomson Reuters ProView

Publication date: November 2022

SPECIAL OFFER

15% discount on print and ProView formats – offer available from 1 August to 30 September 2022

To order or for further information, please contact Julie.Johnson@thomsonreuters.com, quoting LTREES22